Update Regarding Access to the Credit Union Due to the COVID-19 Outbreak

The credit union continues to be open for daily operations from 9:00 A.M. – 3:00 P.M. Monday through Friday. However, due to the current events access is limited to the Bruceton Research Center where the credit union is located. We encourage members to use our electronic services such as Home Banking, Mobile Banking, Electronic Bill Pay, ATM/Debit Cards and Online Loan Application. Members who have transactions that cannot be completed via electronic services should contact the credit union directly to schedule an appointment with a credit union representative. Should there be any questions or concerns, or to sign up for electronic services, please contact the credit union at 412-943-1050 or via email at generalmailbox@memfcu.org.

In compliance with Governor Wolf's Worker Safety Order, we ask that members wear a mask or face covering when conducting face to face transactions with a credit union employee. Credit union employees are also required to wear a mask while at work. We appreciate your cooperation!

Year End 1098 and 1099 Tax Statement Information

Members will receive their year-end 1098 and 1099 tax statements by January 31, 2021. They will be mailed to the address the credit union had on file as of December 31, 2020. Please keep this statement with your tax records, as you will need it to prepare your 2020 tax return. If you received less than $10 in dividends or paid less than $600 in interest you will not receive a 1098 or 1099. However, total dividends received and total interest paid for 2020 will be reported on your December 31, 2020 year-end statement.

WHAT DOES MEM FEDERAL CREDIT UNION DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why? Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What? The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Social Security number and income
- Account Balances and Personal History
- Transaction History and Credit card or other debt

When you are no longer our member, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.

How? All financial companies need to share members' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers' personal information; the reasons MEM Federal Credit Union chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

REASONS WE CAN SHARE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION	Does MEM FCU Share?	Can You Limit This Sharing?
For our everyday business purposes—such as to process your transactions, maintain your account(s), respond to court orders and legal investigations, or report to credit bureaus	YES	NO
For our marketing purposes—to offer our products and services to you	YES	NO
For joint marketing with other financial companies	NO	WE DO NOT SHARE
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your transactions and experiences	NO	WE DO NOT SHARE
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness	NO	WE DO NOT SHARE
For non-affiliates to market to you	NO	WE DO NOT SHARE

WHAT WE DO

How does MEM Federal Credit Union protect my personal information? To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does MEM Federal Credit Union collect my personal information? We collect your personal information, for example, when you:

- Open an account or deposit money
- Pay your bills or apply for a loan
- Use your credit or debit card

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing? Federal law gives you the right to limit only:

- Sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- Affiliates from using your information to market to you
- Sharing for non-affiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

DEFINITIONS

Affiliates - Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and non-financial companies. MEM Federal Credit Union has no affiliates.

Non-Affiliates - Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and non-financial companies. MEM Federal Credit Union does not share with non affiliates so they can market to you.

Joint Marketing - A formal agreement between non-affiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you. MEM Federal Credit Union does not market jointly.
